- * Over 76 miles-$195

6. A Seasonal Term can be from 3-5 months, which includes:

- 2 laying hens (additional hen $75/each if available)
- 1 high quality comfortable functional Coop
- 35 lbs. of shavings (bedding)
- 50 lbs. premium chicken feed; organic feed is additional $25
- Chicken watering dispenser
- Chicken food dispenser
- Container of mealworms (to assist training hens)
- Oyster shells/treats
- Instructions and on-call /email /text questions and answers, 24/7

- Additional items are available at various prices—additional hen, hen run rental, and netting.
- Prices may change without notice at any time. Certain pricing and services may vary depending on unique customer situations.

- 7. Depending on the season, and specific coop, there may be an option for customers to purchase the hens, coop, and accessories. Customers will be assessed a “buyout fee” which will be determined on an individual basis (based on coop availability / selection).
8. Customers are responsible for maintaining the health and well-being of the hens; if any hen should die of an accident, misadventure, or missing in action, (e.g. Hawk, dog, coyote attack while free-ranging) there will be a $65 fee assessed from Rhentaflock at the end of the rental term. To REPLACE a hen(s) during rental term, customers are charged a $65 fee. Hens can either be picked-up by the customer or delivered by Rhentaflock, with an additional mileage fee for delivery.
9. Rhentaflock does not guarantee hens will lay an egg(s) every day- (they lay less in the autumn and winter and laying is not always consistent) dependent on conditions, climate, and mother nature.
10. The Rhentaflock rental coop must be picked-up in a good, fully functional condition which will be determined by a Rhentaflock Staff. If there is damage to the coop, a reasonable fee will be assessed to the customer. (This usually does not happen because our customers love to maintain the coops, however, if Rhentaflock cannot rent the damaged coop, the customer will be assessed the purchase price of the coop). All HENS MUST BE IN COOP DAY OF PICK-UP!
Coop should be cleaned of bedding prior to our arrival.
11. The customer is solely responsible for assuring they meet any local and county regulations relating to possession of hens on their property. Rhentaflock does not assume responsibility for local/county restrictions. No refunds are granted to the customer after Rhentaflock deliveries due to local/county restrictions or for any reason.
12. Rhentaflock and its owners are not responsible for any injuries, illness or deaths that might occur from the renting or buying of our hens/coops/eggs and or accessories. Renter accepts full responsibility for hens and coop and hold Rhentaflock personnel harmless.
13. We may require proof of homeowners and rental insurance.
14. We are confident you will enjoy the rental experience; therefore, we do not refund after customer takes delivery of coop, hens, and accessories.

*Note: If customer would like to rent for a shorter seasonal term and would like to purchase the coop and all the accessories, please call 508-858-9631 for special detailed pricing and to discuss options.

Note: Rhentaflock recommends moving the coop to a new location every several weeks and promotes changing the bedding once a week. Hens love to wander around the yard--- we recommend hens enjoy free-ranging for several hours a day if possible. If hens are out of the coop, they should be monitored. The hens must always have access to clean water and feed. In weather over 85 degrees, the chicken coop should be moved to a shaded area. If the customer feels the hen (s) are ill feel free to email, call or text Jean or Patrick McBride at 508-858-9631. If you feel hen (s) requires veterinarian care, this will come at customer’s own expense.

*Martha's Vineyard residents, please call 508-858-9631 for rental prices and fees.

Payment is expected at the time of delivery--- pick-up fee will be on original invoice for payment on day of delivery, no exceptions. All sales are final.
