6. A Seasonal Term can be from 3-5 months, e.g. Late April-September, which includes:

- 2 laying hens (additional hen $85/each if available)
- 1 high quality comfortable functional Coop
- 35 lbs. of shavings (bedding)
- 50 lbs. premium chicken feed; organic feed is additional $45
- Chicken watering dispenser
- Chicken food dispenser
- Container of mealworms (to assist training of hens)
- Oyster shells/treats

- Instructions and on-call /email /text questions and answers, 24/7
- Additional items are available at various prices—additional hen, hen run rental, and netting.
- Prices may change without notice at any time. Certain pricing and services may vary depending on unique customer situations.

7. At the end of the season, there may be the opportunity to purchase the hens and accessories. Customers will be assessed a “buyout fee”. Certain coops may be purchased.
8. Customers are responsible for maintaining the health and well-being of the hens; if any hen should die of an accident, misadventure, or missing in action, (e.g. hawk, dog, coyote attack while free ranging) there will be a $85 fee assessed from Rhentaflock at the end of the rental term. To REPLACE a hen(s) during rental term, customers are charged a $85 fee. Hens can either be picked-up by the customer, or delivered by Rhentaflock, with an additional delivery fee.
9. Our hens are very strong laying hens! However, Rhentaflock does not guarantee hens will lay an egg(s) every day- hens lay less in the autumn and winter; laying is not always consistent, it is dependent on daylight, climate, coop conditions, and mother nature.
10. The Rhentaflock rental coop must be picked-up in a good, fully functional condition which will be determined by a Rhentaflock Staff. If there is damage to the coop, a reasonable fee will be assessed to the customer. (This usually does not happen because our customers love to maintain the hens and the coops, however, if Rhentaflock cannot rent the damaged coop, the customer will be assessed a re-conditioning price of the said coop. **** All HENS MUST BE IN COOP DAY OF PICK-UP! The Coop should be cleaned of bedding prior to our arrival.
11. The customer is solely responsible for assuring they meet any local and county regulations relating to possession of hens on their property. Rhentaflock does not assume responsibility for local/county restrictions. No refunds are granted to the customer after Rhentaflock deliveries due to local/county restrictions or for any reason.
12. Rhentaflock and its owners are not responsible for any injuries, illness or deaths that might occur from the renting or buying of our hens/coops/eggs and or accessories. Renter accepts full responsibility for hens and coop and hold Rhentaflock personnel responsible.
13. We are confident you will enjoy the rental experience; therefore, we do not refund after customer takes delivery of coop, hens, and accessories.

*****Note: If customer would like to rent for a shorter seasonal term please call Jean at 508-858-9631 for special detailed pricing and to discuss rental options.

Note: Rhentaflock recommends changing the bedding once a week. Hens love to wander around the yard— we recommend hens enjoy supervise free-ranging for several hours a day if possible. The hens must always have access to clean water and feed. If the customer feels the hen (s) are ill feel free to email, call or text Jean at 508-858-9631. If you feel hen (s) requires veterinarian care, this will come at customer’s own expense.

MV Island residents will be charged 25% on all items invoiced-call Jean, 508-858-9631 for pricing.
